Summary

Katy Dickinson is in the first cohort of Graduate Theological Union's Interreligious Chaplaincy Program and a chaplain for the Correctional Institutions Chaplaincy in Santa Clara County. She is the Founder of Mentoring Standard and an award-winning Process Architect. She makes mentors shine. Starting in 2001, Katy Dickinson designed and managed successful mentoring programs in the Americas, Africa, the Middle East, Europe, and Asia – while holding a variety of senior executive roles in the Silicon Valley. She was the Process Architect for the US State Department's TechWomen international mentoring program and has been a TechWomen mentor for over twelve years. At Sun Microsystems, she designed and managed the global Engineering mentoring programs for ten years, as well as the Sun Labs archiving system, and Software Development Life Cycle process.
